

ENTERPRISE-JOURNAL

McCOMB, MISSISSIPPI

JOHN EMMERICH
MANAGING EDITOR

Sept. 16, 1962

Dear Jim:

About your research project on Southern leadership, I would be delighted for you to come to McComb. Only by the wildest stretch of imagination do I qualify as "Southern leadership," but perhaps my father does.

Celia and I have a new house with plenty of room and nothing would please us more than for you to visit us -- you and Dutch. This is a standing invitation. Whenever you can make it, please let me know.

Cordially,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'John', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.